To find it take RT 857 South out of Fairchance to Mud Pike Road, turn left.
Continue about 1 and 1/2 miles to field on right. Park vehicle, walk to upper right corner of field to old road going through woods. Follow road to a stone spring house on right turn right on older trail, follow to intersection id right angle trail. Turn right, cemetery is about 150 yards in small clearing.
According to man who told me about cemetery, several headstones have been removed since he was there last. Also several years ago at least 5 graves were dig up, presumably for what was in coffins Recorded July 2000.

Notes for Luther Brownfield:

I am interested in information concerning one of the Brownfield lines out of Fayette Co in Pa. There were two brothers a Charles and a Robert who married two sisters I think Mary and Ann Bowell. One line is that of the Basil Brownfield people, the other line includes mine. I am interested in connecting with any relatives that descend from Zadoc Brownfield M Ann Price and Luther Brownfield (served in the Civil War, brother to my great grandfather) These people are buried behind the Post Office in Smithfield, PA and I believe are connected to the "Brownfield Hollow" ones. My grandfather was Lee Byron Brownfield, an attorney in Uniontown (d. Circa 1926 and brother to Owen Brownfield also an attorney from Fairchance.) There are a lot of Fayette Brownfields out there, but I have yet to come in contact with any who are related to the Zadoc Brownfield line. Can any one help? - Christine Brownfield

Charles Brownfield, the son of Robert Sr. (1730's-1821), lived near Smithfield and had many sons, including Alexander Brownfield (the ancestor of Mary and Winifred Woodfill) and Zadoc Brownfield, the ancestor of many of the Brownfields that have lived in Brownfield Hollow above Haydentown (including Ash Brownfield and his family).

From the Book, "250 years of the history of one branch of the Brownfield family of Fayette Co., PA"

by Todd Alan Brownfield, 1990

Michael Brownfield has Charles as the son of Charles and Elizabeth Bird Brownfield, not their grandson, but this makes little sense in terms of the time frame or names involved. Michael does not name this Charles Jr or the II, but names his son as Charles Jr. So I do not accept his lineage.

In Wiley's "History of Preston County" [pub'd in 1882] in his section on the Reno District, on pp. 517-518, there is the following tidbit which might be a small clue in your search for the parents of Rebecca Brownfield (1796-1865) who was the wife of James H. Hamilton (1791- 1868):

"Salt Making. --- Charles Brownfield, of Smithfield, Pa., attempted to make salt on Big Buffalo Run over 50 years ago; James Hamilton (the father-in-law of Joseph G. Baker), who married a Brownfield, superintended the work. Some salt was made, but for some cause now not known the undertaking was abandoned."

Also noticed that a Corporal James Hamilton served in the War of 1812 in Captain Samuel Kennedy's Company, Virginia Militia, which was composed, at least in part, by Preston County residents.

In Morton's A History of Preston County, James and John J. Hamilton, brothers, were said to have come from PA about 1835 to Evansville and later to the area west of Lyon. Elsewhere Morton writes that James m. Rebecca Brownfield of PA and that John J. m. Matilda Costolo.

Notes for John Kennedy:
From Philip Kennedy -

Unidentified note, rec'd. in Gig Harbor, 6/21/96 by PFK from RFK in Scottsdale, AZ, along with a pile of other family papers relating to family history:

"KENNEDY: This ancient clan is found associated with the southwest of Scotland from the twelfth century, and the history of the Carrick district of Ayrshire is substantially the early history of the Kennedies.

"The Kennedies of Dunure acquired Cassillis, and later one of the family married Mary, daughter of King Robert III. Their son was created Lord Kennedy in 1457, and in 1509 the third Lord Kennedy was created Earl of Cassillis. While the family had many illustrious men, Gilbert, 4th Earl, earned an infamous reputation for his dreadful deed of "roasting the Abbot of Crossraguel" in the black vault of Dunure, to obtain possession of the lands of the Abbey. Archibald, 12th Earl of Cassillis, was created Baron Ailsa in 1806, and in 1831 Marquess of Ailsa.

"Tradition tells that Ulric Kennedy fled from Ayrshire for some lawless deed and settled in Lochaber where his descendants were known as Clan Ulric, and the Kennedies of Skye, and other districts of the Highlands, trace their descent from this branch of the family. The Lochaber Kennedies joined forces with the Camerons and are accepted as a sept of the latter clan.

"The present chief of the Clan Kennedy is Charles, 5th Marquess of Ailsa.

"Crest: A dolphin, naiant, proper. The crest of the MacUlrics is said to have been a hand grasping a dagger."

Notes for Rebecca Brownfield:

Rebecca was also the name of a daughter of Robert and Eleanor Sutton

Brownfield's son Charles and his wife Ruth Bowell, according to Bible Records provided by Mrs. Juanita Aquino who subscribes to Gleanings.

This Rebecca was born Oct. 2, 1812. She may have been confused in your record with Robert Brownfield, Jr. and Mary Bowell's possible

daughter
 named Rebecca. The 1812 birth date seems more than coincidental.
 I
 can't look at Robert, Jr.'s will right now to see if it lists a daughter Rebecca, but it might. I think it was published in Gleanings. He died in 1815, I think. I was just in the small Robert Brownfield, Sr. and Eleanor Sutton Family Cemetery in Smithfield, Fayette Co., Pa (off
 Main
 Street or Route 119) a week or so ago. It is in surprisingly good shape. Robert Jr. and Mary Bowell's stones are there and barely readable. Also, Charles Brownfield and Ruth Bowell's sons Zadoc
 (b.
 1798) and Alexander (b. 1796) and their wife's stones are still visible, as well as a number of grandchildren, etc. The place is kept mowed
 and there were even flags and veteran's markers on the veteran's graves.

Notes for Robert Brownfield, Sr.:

In 1771 he owned 150 acres of land in what was then Bedford County. It became Westmoreland County in 1773 and Fayette County in 1783.

Robert Brownfield was born in late 1730's in Chester Co., PA, and came with his father, Charles and the rest of the family into Fayette Co. wilderness in the 1760's. Settling a large tract of land near modern-day Smithfield, Robert prospered and had several children, among whom were two sons, Robert Brownfield, Jr and Charles. Robert Sr. died in 1821.

Rebecca was also the name of a daughter of Robert and Eleanor Sutton Brownfield's son Charles and his wife Ruth Bowell, according to Bible Records provided by Mrs. Juanita Aquino who subscribes to Gleanings. This Rebecca was born Oct. 2, 1812. She may have been confused in your record with Robert Brownfield, Jr. and Mary Bowell's possible daughter named Rebecca. The 1812 birth date seems more than coincidental. I can't look at Robert, Jr.'s will right now to see if it lists a daughter Rebecca, but it might. I think it was published in Gleanings. He died in 1815, I think. I was just in the small Robert Brownfield, Sr. and Eleanor Sutton Family Cemetery in Smithfield, Fayette Co., Pa (off Main Street or Route 119) a week or so ago. It is in surprisingly good shape. Robert Jr. and Mary Bowell's stones are there and barely readable. Also, Charles Brownfield and Ruth Bowell's sons Zadoc (b. 1798) and Alexander (b. 1796) and their wife's stones are still visible, as well as a number of grandchildren, etc. The place is kept mowed and there were even flags and veteran's markers on the veteran's graves.

NOTE> The above information tended to be more confusing than useful. He did not understand my question and has a book to sell. If I find the book and it has information on James Henry Hamilton wife Rebecca b. 28 Jan. 1796, in Smithfield, PA and d. 28 Aug. 1867 in Dent, Preston Co., WV. She is buried in "The Old Sandy Cemetery", 1.5 miles SE of Evansville.

As a notation to anyone interested: Pennsylvania Land Laws are not ***exactly*** like land laws in other states, although by the 1790s most laws there had been "Americanized". Remember that Pennsylvania, prior to the revolution, was operated pretty much as a fiefdom. If you do very much research in Pennsylvania for a period as early as the 1790s, you may need to become familiar with the set of English laws that preceeded this era and that governed land in Pennsylvania. Land transactions were fairly complicated.

ROBERT
Son of Old Charles

Robert is a popular name with Brownfields here and in England in modern as well as in earlier times.

The grandparents of Robert supposedly emigrated from Scotland to Ireland and then to the Colonies before the time of the American Revolution. The family may be descended from a George Brownfield who fought with Cromwell and then fled to Scotland after the Restoration. They were Presbyterians.

The family may have arrive around 1718 and at least before "midel September 1739" when the grandfather Robert died in Chester County, Pennsylvania leaving two sons Charles and Robert, Jr. and perhaps other children.

Robert was probably the oldest of the 7 or 8 sons of Charles and his wife Elizabeth (Betsy) Bird. He was probably born north of Winchester, Virginia, at Apple Pie Ridge so named for the pies baked by the Quakers there for the Hessians who in turn deserted to the American side.

He was named for his grandfather, his father's brother as well as his mother's oldest brother.

Exact dates are not known for any of the children of Charles and Betsy with the exception of the youngest Benjamin. Robert's birth date has been given as 1733 or 1735 and as late as 1739 to 1741. The earlier dates are the most likely ones as he married Eleanor Sutton who was born in 1734 in 1753.

His death date has been given as 25 September 1771. The Patriot Index has 1821. Elsewhere 1823 has been given. 21 September 1821 may be the correct date. It must have been after 16 March 1815 as on that date his son Robert wrote a will leaving to his son Bowel "100 acres of land to be surveyed out of that land lying in the east side of the Morgantown road now in possession of my father Robert Brownfield, senior." In January of that same year Robert, Sr. signed by mark that he was witness to the oral will of a McIrvin.

Robert, Jr. died that same year His father outlived him. Both had served in the Revolution under the jurisdiction of Pennsylvania. Robert, Jr. was one of the 60 men surviving an Indian ambush on the way to Wheeling, West Virginia. He was taken prisoner and finally got home a year later. Robert, Sr. saw his commander Colonel Crawford, another early settler from east of Uniontown, burned at the stake.

Robert, Sr. was one of the earliest settlers in the area. He is given in the records of Bedford County as the owner of 150 acres in 1771. In 1773 he is listed in Springhill Township which was in Cumberland County until 1771, in Bedford for two years, then in Westmoreland and then Fayette County in 1783. This may be the same 150 acres that appeared on the 1816 Georges Township, Fayette County, tax lists in 1816 and 1817. In one he is listed as a farmer and in the other as an old man.

According to his great grandson Joseph Collins Brownfield he camped under a large white oak tree east of Smithfield when he first came to the area. This was about a half mile east of where his son Robert and Robert's wife Mary Bowell were later buried.

He was well established as a land owner around Smithfield which is about 9 or 10 miles south or southwest of Uniontown when his father and four brothers went to Kentucky. His son, Charles, owned land in Hardin County, Kentucky, which he left to his son Thomas. Thomas in turn willed Kentucky land to his son Charles.

Robert lived near his brother William who had a store in Smithfield. His brother Empson came to church in Smithfield -riding a "coach and four" traveling the whole distance of 9 miles to get there on his own land. (Empson's children were older than those of Robert and William according to Warner C. Brownfield.)

Smithfield where Robert acquired a lot of land as did his two sons Robert and Charles (born 1760 and 1763 and both marrying Bowells) had been known as Brown-field until 1811. Then the township was offered a post office. Smith who owned a store and Robert who owned all the land both plied voters with liquor. No vote was taken, however, so the government named the place for both of them, Smith-field.

A Rebecca Brownfield, born 1795, married a Hamilton in 1813 at Smithfield. She supposedly was given land in West Virginia by her grandfather W Robert of Boone County, Kentucky. This may be Robert or his brother William.

Robert had at least 22 grandchildren, 12 from Robert and 10 from Charles. A great grand daughter Margaret married Jehu of the Benjamin line. A grandson Charles, Jr. married a grand daughter of Tory Tom. This grandson moved to Kentucky where he later married Jane McPherson in 1847. A grand daughter Lydia married her cousin Henry Brownfield, a doctor, and moved to Iowa.

Other descendants went to Illinois and Texas and as far as California.

A fourth great grand daughter Ruth Wiley Nine still lives in Smithfield. Sara Honsaker and Mary Woodfill live in Uniontown. Other present day descendants include Paul G. Watters, Granville Brownfield, Marvin Brownfield, and Lois Henry of Illinois; Glenn R. Hand and Richard Ladd Brownfield of Texas; Darlene McConnell of Indiana; Marjorie Nichols of California; Douglas Patterson Kennedy and Jackie Gocker.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR

BROWNFIELD, Robert Hr. - Stokley's Rangers, Buried in Brownfield Cemetery near Smithfield PA

(1772) The area where Robert lived had been known as Brownfield until 1811. Then the township was offered a post office. Mr. Smith owned a store, Robert all the land. Both tried to buy votes with liquor. A vote was never taken so the government named the town after both of them, thus "Smithfield". A Revolutionary War soldier, he was with Col. William Crawford's expedition in 1782.

From the very first the name of the town was Smithfield. The Brownfields owned land nearly all around the town. About the time of the war of 1812 it was decided by the governmental authorities to open a post-office in Smithfield, and then the question arose, What should the office be named? Some were in favor of Smithfield, while others favored Brownfieldtown. To settle the matter in dispute it was left to the voters of the township to decide what the name of the new post-office should be. Robert Brownfield furnished whisky freely to one of the tavern-keepers, and Barnabas Smith gave an equal quantity to another tavern-keeper, and these gave the ardent freely to the voters. The day was almost gone and no voting had been done as yet, when Col. John Oliphant put in an appearance on the scene, and seeing that the voters were too drunk to properly exercise their right of suffrage he mounted a store-box, and calling them to order he said, "We have met for the laudable purpose of giving a name to our new post-office, but as the day is far spent and I see no chance of deciding by ballot, now I propose to decide viva voce. I would like to accommodate both of the gentlemen with at least a part of the name. Mr. Smith's first name is Barnabas, but we all call him 'Barney;' Mr. Brownfield's given name is Robert, but we all call him 'Bob.' Now I move you that the name of this town hereafter be 'Barney Bobtown.'" The motion received a second, was put, and was unanimously adopted. But the name of the post-office always remained Smithfield.

Diane, I am not aware if veteran's records are available on line from the National Archives, you may be able to order copies on line. I ordered hard copies several years ago. Alexander served from Pennsylvania, he received a Revolutionary War pension, and Rebecca had to reapply after his death for a widow's benefits. Alexander's will is also on file in Boone County, KY. Regards, Stan

35. Anna Jane Lamont.

35. Anna Jane Lamont<sup>199,200,201</sup>, born 1749 in Wales; died March 06, 1833 in Georges Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania<sup>202,203</sup>.

Notes for Thomas Howell:

Birth:

1740 - born in Wales (I.G.I., LDS Church member submission)

1754 - born in Wales (Daughters of the War of 1812 submission, Galvin, Eleanor S., compiler; "1812 Ancestor Index, 1892-1970", National Soc. United states Daughters of 1812, 1971) There are many inaccuracies in this entry; Thomas died 1808. It was his nephew, whose wife was Phebe, that served in the War of 1812.

1749-54 - Most likely dates of Thomas' birth (see entry 1766 and 1800 Census); probable location Virginia (Frederick County) since his father bought land there in 1730 and sold it in 1765.

1766 - Thomas Bowell did not receive a gift of land from his father William in 1766 when William made gifts of land to his son Bazil and to his two son-in-laws Wm. & Joseph Craycraft. Probably Thomas was not of age at that time. (Sage & Jones, "Early Records: Hampshire County, VA", Gen. Publ., Baltimore, 1976, pages 4 and 16)

1772 - Thomas Bowell rec'd from his father William Bowell's estate L20-1 (Probate Records, Hampshire County, WV, - Env. 8, County Court, Hampshire Co., 1772 - LDS Family History Center film #186352)

1773 - In the Minute Book of the Great Bethel Baptist Church in Uniontown, PA, in a list of "Members Rec'd by Baptism" in July 1773, under "Restored" are the names Anna Bowell, Thomas Bowells, and Ame(Ann) Bowell. This could be our Thomas, his wife, and his mother. ("Great Bethel Baptist Church, Book I", prepared under the direction of the Uniontown Public Library, 1933- , pg. 5)

* OR *

1773-1779 - Thomas was still in Hampshire County, West Virginia, per his name as witness for land transactions and wills in these years. ("Early records: Hampshire Co., VA" published by Sage & Jones Gen. Publishing, Baltimore, 1976 - info courtesy of Leta Hudson, Plantation, FL)

1780 - Thomas and Basil Bowers(sic) are listed in the PA census in Springhill Township.

1782 - Thomas was excused from service in Capt. Ichabod Ashcraft's unit of the Militia raised to protect the frontier settlements from the Indians & British; he was "Excused on the Credit of his brother Bazil Bowel, who is Enrolled under Capt. Ashcraft for the Expedition." (Ellis, Franklyn, "History of Fayette County, Pennsylvania", L.H. Everts & Co., 1882 - a footnote with these entries cites their source as "the minutes of the several military 'Courts of Appeal' held in the spring and summer of 1782" found in an old manuscript book that was still at the Uniontown Courthouse.)

1783 - At the monthly meeting of the Great Bethel Baptist Church of Uniontown, held October 18, - "Rec'd the Experience of Elizabeth Hardin and Ann Bowell Thos. ..." ("Great Bethel Church, Book I", prepared under the direction of the Uniontown Public Library, 1936, pg. 39-40)

1784 - March 25, 1784 - Thomas' land in Georges Township used in the description of the deed of neighbor Henry Smith. ("LaFayette - History & Genealogy of Fayette County, PA, Vol 1-2" published by Southwestern PA Genealogical Services, Laughlintown, PA)

At the monthly meeting of the Great Bethel Baptist Church, on June 19, 1784, it was "Resolv'd that the members shall work at the meeting house every day that is appointed by Richard Reed, Thomas Bowels & Philip Jenkins under penalty of five schillings for Neglect." (Great Bethel Church, Op Cit., pg. 48-50)

Thomas and his wife Ann were founding member of the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Smithfield, Fayette Co., PA (Mt. Moriah Baptist Church Minute Book)

1785 - Thomas and his brother Bazil listed as tax payers in Georges Township, Fayette Co., PA. ("Fayette County, PA Taxpayers, 1785-1799", T.L.C. Genealogy, Miami Beach, FL, 1991, p. 15)

1786 - Thomas Bowell's plantation "Fairfield" (296+ acres) warranted March 8, 1786, and surveyed March 20, 1786. Patented to Warrantee June 26, 1790 by The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. (original land grant map, "Horn Papers, Vol. III") (Fayette County Deed Book 94, pgs. 68-69)

Thomas is mentioned in the Minute Book of the Great Bethel Church on March 19, 1786, when he and Joseph Thomas "of the other church" (Mt. Moriah) are to go with two Bethel members to talk with a Sarah Baccous re a complaint brought against her. (Great Bethel Church, Op Cit., pg. 57)

1787 - Tax Records - listed as owning about 330 acres in Georges Township (FHC film #1449307-8)

1788 - Tax Records - listed as tax assessor and as owning 206 acres, 2 horses, and 5 cattle.

1790 - U.S. Census - household listed as including Thomas, 2 males under 15, and 12 females.

1793 - Tax records - 273 acres, 1 horse, 7 cattle.

1794 - Jonathon Rees named his "trusty friend Thomas Bowell" as the executor of his will. ("LaFayette", Vol 1-2)

1799 - Tax Records - 273 acres, 2 horses, 5 cattle, and 2 houses.

1800 - U.S. Census - Thomas (listed as Bowars) as 45 or over, 1 male 16-26, 1 female under 10, 3 females 10-16, 1 female 16-26, and 1 female over 45.

Tax Records - 273 acres, 4 horses, 2 cattle, farmer.

1807 - Tax records - listed as Thomas, sr. with property above; the Thomas, jr. listed was his nephew.

1808 - Sept. 6, being "Weak in body, but in perfect minded memory" Thomas wrote his will. (Fayette County Will Book 1, p.090)

Sept. 6, Thomas & Ann Bowell sold to Daniel John 109 acres of "Fairfield" for $1,000. This Daniel John was probably their son-in-law since in 1824 a Thomas B. John named his "Uncle Bazel Bowell" in his will. (Fayette Co. Deed Book Q, p. 554-5)

Sept. 10, Thomas died, leaving listed in his will his wife Ann, son Bazel, and nine daughters, not named (Fayette Co., Will Book 1, p.090)

More About THOMAS BOWELL:

Birth rec. source: I believe him to be younger than Bazil b. 1748; prob. not of age in 1766

Burial: prob. Mt. Moriah Baptist Church Cemetery, Smithfield, PA

Cause of Death: His will states "being weak in body but in perfect minded memory"

Death rec. source: Minute Book, Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Smithfield, PA

Military Service: no - excused from service 1782 "on the Credit of his brother, Bazil Bowell"

Occupation: Farmer

Religion: Baptist

- Burna K. Jamieson

At the time of his death, he owned 206 acres of land, two horses and five cows. In the 1790 census his family reported 1 male over age 16, 2 males under age 16, and twelve females. He was very active in the Mt. Moriah Baptist church where he served as an elder. His will was dated September 6, 1808 and proved September 27, 1808. The will mentions one son Bazel to whom he gave his watch. It also mentions nine daughters but does not give their names. - Gerald P. Ring

Notes for Anna Jane Lamont:

Notes for ANN ???:

According to her husband's will, nine daughters of Thomas & Ann Bowell were living at the time of his death in 1808. The 1800 census lists 1 female under 10 (b. 1790-1800), 3 females 10-16 (b.1784-1790), 1 female 16-26 (b. 1774-1784), and 1 male 16-26 (b.1774-1784). The 1790 census lists 2 males under 15 (b. 1776-1790).

1809 - Ann (Anna) Bowell is listed in Fayette Co. tax records as a widow with one horse and 1 cow.

The tax records also list a Rhoda and a Margaret Bowell, each owning a horse. These were most likely Ann's daughters (although the Margaret could be the widow of Basil who died 1805 - need to check to see if she is listed as a widow).

1810 - Tax Records - Anna Bowell, 1 horse.

U.S. Census - Anne Bowell, no males, 1 female 16-26, 1 female 26-45, & Ann (over 45).

1814 - Tax Records - Ann Bowell, 1 horse, 1 cow.

1820 - U.S. Census

1830 - U.S. Census

1833 - 3-9-1833 "Ann Bowell departed this life who had been for many years a member of this church. She was about 84 years of age." (Minute Book of the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Smithfield, PA)

Rebecca was also the name of a daughter of Robert and Eleanor Sutton

Brownfield's son Charles and his wife Ruth Bowell, according to Bible

Records provided by Mrs. Juanita Aquino who subscribes to Gleanings.

This Rebecca was born Oct. 2, 1812. She may have been confused in your

record with Robert Brownfield, Jr. and Mary Bowell's possible
daughter

named Rebecca. The 1812 birth date seems more than coincidental.

I

can't look at Robert, Jr.'s will right now to see if it lists a daughter Rebecca, but it might. I think it was published in Gleanings. He died in 1815, I think. I was just in the small Robert Brownfield, Sr. and Eleanor Sutton Family Cemetery in Smithfield, Fayette Co., Pa (off
Main

Street or Route 119) a week or so ago. It is in surprisingly good shape. Robert Jr. and Mary Bowell's stones are there and barely readable. Also, Charles Brownfield and Ruth Bowell's sons Zadoc
(b.

1798) and Alexander (b. 1796) and their wife's stones are still
visible,

as well as a number of grandchildren, etc. The place is kept mowed
and

there were even flags and veteran's markers on the
veteran's graves.

December 17, Bazel & Elizabeth deeded to Michael Knife, for $25, two acres of "Fairfield" which included the "site whereon sd Knife has now built a saw mill with ----- of the water within the bounds of the afoesaid". (Fayette County Deed Book H, p. 155-6)

1809 - Tax records show Bazel owning 168 acres, 2 horses, and 2 cows; his father had died in September 1808 leaving 273 acres.

1810 - Census records list Bazel with his wife and two children, a boy and a girl, both under 10, in Georges Township.

1811 - March 8, Bazel deeded to the heirs of Joshua Robison for $1 some nineteen + acres (deed very difficult to read) of "Fairfield" as per the instructions in his father's will. (Fayette Co. Deed Book H, p.293-4)

1812 - Bazel enlisted on October 5, 1812, as a private in Captain McClellan's Company of Light Dragoons of the PA Militia for one year's service in Maj. Wm. Henry Harrison's Army of the Northwest in the War of 1812. (U.S. National Archives, "Old War" Invalid File # 3032, Index Vol.A, p.37)

1813 - Bazel was mustered out of service, after Oct. 5, 1813. (Ibid.)

1814 - Tax records - owned 165 acres, 2 horses, and 2 cows.

1815 - January 31, 1815, son Thomas Alexander born. (Wisconsin Death Registration, 1890 Green Co., # 26)

1820 - Census records: listed as farming, age 26-45, wife 26-45, a boy and a girl under 10, a boy and a girl 10-16, and a boy about 20.

1824 - The sheriff of Fayette Co. seized forty acres & 33 perches of land from Bazel Bowell as the result of a court judgement against him. The court awarded $388.16 + $4.16 to Thomas B. John. The sheriff sold the land at auction to said John for $200.00.

1828 - Son William Henry born November 28. (Gravestone, Mt. Moriah Baptist Church Cemetery, Smithfield, PA)

1830 - Census records: listed as a farmer age 40-50, with wife age 40-50, four sons (one under 5, one 5-10, one 15-20, and one 20-30) and one daughter age 10-15.

1840 - Census records: listed as 50-60, with wife 50-60, one son 10-15, and two sons 20-30.

1850 - Census records: listed as a 65 year old farmer with property valued at $2,000; his wife Elizabeth was 63, son Wm. Henry was 22 and a farmer. Bazel & Wm. Henry gave birthplaces as PA, Elizabeth gave her birthplace as MD.

1850 - On November 19, 1850, Bazel filed for a disability pension made available to the veterans of the War of 1812. John Graham and James Abraham, also members of McClellan's Light Dragoons wrote letters supporting Bazel's claims. (U.S. National Archives, op cit.)

1851 - On March 29, 1851, a pension of $8.00 per month began. (Ibid.)

1860 - Census records: listed in the records for Georges Township as an "Old Gent" - age 74, born PA, real estate valued at $2,000, and personal property valued at $600; wife Elizabeth born MD.

1870 - Census records: listed as residing with son William and family as a retired farmer age 83.

1872 - Bazel's wife Elizabeth Kyle died on September 11, 1872, and was buried in the Mt. Moriah Cemetery in Smithfield. (Gravestone, Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Smithfield, PA)

1873 - On October 14, an examining surgeon described Bazel as 6' tall, weighing 130 pounds, of fair complexion, 85 years old, with respiration 28, and pulse 73. The physician described Bazel's rheumatic condition as follows: "The hands are distorted and the fingers contracted seriously interfering with his power to grasp. The joints of the other extremities are stiffened rendering walking painful, and aside from his great age and the general feebleness resulting therefrom his rheumatic affliction would totally incapacitate him from the performance of labor". (U.S. National Archives, op cit)

1874 - Bazel died February 2, 1874, at age 87 years, 9 months, and 11 days, and was buried in the Mt. Moriah Baptist Cemetery

Notes for RHODA (?) BOWELL:

Rhoda Bowell is listed in the 1809 tax records of Fayette County, PA, as owning one horse. The same records list Margaret, the widow of Bazil, and Anna, the widow of Thomas, Since Rhoda is not listed as a daughter in the probate of Bazil's estate, I believe she must be one of the daughters of Thomas & Ann, daughters un-named in Thomas' will.
